Jeffrey-Cowan Forest Preserve Extension*

Make a pledge to help extend KLT's Jeffrey-Cowan Forest Preserve, part of the Ston(e)y Lake Trails network, to protect more nature and vital wildlife habitat on the shores of Ston(e)y Lake.

Together, we can protect Ston(e)y Lake shoreline, riparian habitat, and forest

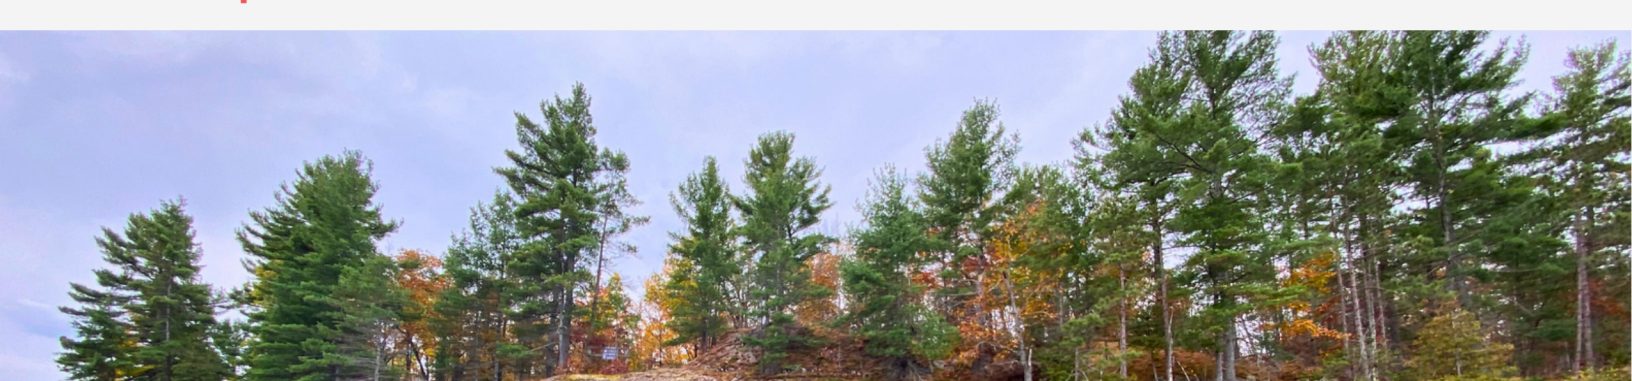

Kawartha Land Trust (KLT), a registered charity serving the Kawarthas since 2001 through volunteer and donor support, has the opportunity to expand upon its protected lands on the shores of Ston(e)y Lake.

Your pledge will protect one of the most important opportunities to conserve shoreline and riparian habitat and contiguous forest cover along the lake.

This precious natural land is being marketed as a development opportunity that would put more pressure on the lake's ability to sustain the people and animals who call it home.

Natural shoreline is one of the most characteristic and at-risk features in our area, and this particular shoreline was identified as a top priority for conservation through research jointly conducted by KLT and the Environment Council for Clear, Stony and White Lakes, with the support of The Stony Lake Heritage Foundation, in 2021.

With your pledge, we can add 4.25 ha of connected forest habitat and 200 m of natural shoreline to KLT's protected lands along the lake. Land that would benefit several Species at Risk in the area, including Red-headed Woodpeckers and Snapping Turtles. Wildlife needs connected lands to thrive — to be able to feed, nest, and reach breeding grounds. You can help conserve this vital natural space forever.

Together, we can extend the boundaries – and legacy – of KLT's Jeffrey-Cowan Forest Preserve

You can help KLT celebrate and expand upon the legacy of two well-known Stoney Lake residents who cared about the lake and the lands that surround and support it.

Through this conservation opportunity we can honour Norman Cowan who donated the Jeffrey-Cowan Forest Preserve and East Syndicate Island to KLT to protect for the community. This current project is an opportunity to answer the generous spirit of Mr. Cowan's gift.

It would also be an opportunity to honour Ralph Ingleton who passed away in 2023. Mr. Ingleton, one of the generous donors of KLT's Ingleton-Wells property, was a strong proponent of nature recreation and education and was a key driving force in the creation of KLT's Stony Lake Trails in 2016.

Conserving this land is an opportunity to honour his legacy and add to the network of protected and connected properties on the north shore of Ston(e)y Lake for generations to come.

- 200 m of undeveloped shoreline
- Contiguous with 59 ha old-growth forest protected by KLT
- Preserving the natural heritage and views of Ston(e)y Lake
- Protects sensitive forest habitat, rock barrens, and natural shoreline
- Creates wildlife habitat corridor
